

22 TEENS THIS SUMMER!

This group is willing to spend a week being trained and invested in, then going out into their community and reaching children with the Gospel.

Will you support them? Goal: $9,900

The cost for these teens to be trained is $450 per student. This covers their meals and lodging for the week, and their materials used throughout the summer.

They are committed to giving their time and efforts in serving the Lord this summer, would you consider coming behind them and their family?

Turn over to see how you can play a part!
